Commitment to Truth and Reconciliation

Mind – To Know

In recognition of National Indigenous Peoples Day, and in alignment with the CBE Education Plan,

Earl Grey School

acknowledges and supports the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's (TRC) Calls to Action, and makes the following commitment to action for the 2024-2025 school year:

Each classroom teacher will implement and facilitate sharing circles with their students on a weekly basis, following appropriate sharing circle protocol as outlined in the CBE Holistic Lifelong Learning Framework. When facilitating sharing circles, teachers will support student in building capacity for intercultural understanding, empathy, and mutual respect. Additionally, staff and students will build and nurture learning relationships with Indigenous Elders and Knowledge Keepers that fosters a spirit of reciprocity.

Staff professional learning, information, resources, and best practices related to residential schools and Indigenous history will be shared. In making our commitment, Call to Action # 63 offered inspiration.
